Value of New Town Heritage in Peterborough

Examples of value

- Success of Forty Years On
- Peterborough Civic Society
- Strong appreciation for reminiscence of the 1960s onwards- Archives talks
- Appreciation of successful elements of PDC work: Nene Park, parkways, Queensgate
- Rhubarb Bridge
- “Subconscious appreciation”
- Desire by some for Queensgate to be listed

Value of New Town Heritage in Peterborough

Examples of lack of value

- Peterborough doesn't identify as a New Town
- No 50 year celebration
- Demolition of buildings – Bretton Wood School
- Council not following PDC ideals: Hampton, Queensgate refurbishment

Value of New Town Heritage in Peterborough

Reasons for devaluing of New Town Heritage

- Lack of support from important advocates
- PDC left a lot of responsibility to PCC: financially difficult
- Changes in City planning
- Civic pride challenges in some PDC areas
- Generational divide

Advantages of increased New Town Heritage understanding

Public educated in New Town Heritage can lobby against threats
